Spiritual Practices for the Beloved"

November
10-12, 2017

Maranatha Bible and
Missionary Conference

Speaker: Sharon Garlough Brown
author of the Sensible Shoes Series and Spiritual Director

Jesus says, "As the Father has loved me, so I have loved you. Now abide in my love." John 15:9

What does it mean to know ourselves as God's beloved? How do we practice abiding in love? At this retreat, Sharon will weave her own story of growing in confidence in God's love as she teaches spiritual disciplines that help us receive, remain in, and respond to the uncontainable love of God in Christ.

RETREAT SPEAKER: Sharon Garlough Brown (MDiv, Princeton Theological Seminary) is author of the Sensible Shoes series, a spiritual director, and co-founder of Abiding Way Ministries, which provides spiritual formation retreats and resources. Since graduating from seminary, Sharon and her husband, Jack, have served on the pastoral staff of churches in Scotland, Oklahoma, England, and Michigan. They currently live in West Michigan and have one son, David.

RETREAT WORSHIP LEADER: Tami Flick is a professional musician who is equally at home leading worship, directing a choir, or playing her flute in a symphony. In 2015, Tami and a team of her worship leader and musician friends founded the Revive Worship Initiative, an annual, multi-cultural regional worship conference designed to train and equip worshippers for the move of God. Tami also directs the Kalamazoo House of Prayer (www.kzohop.org). Tami is married to her husband of 16 years, John Flick. They have two children - Ellie (10) and Robert (8).
