Seventh Sunday after Pentecost
July 23, 2017

O God, you declare your almighty power chiefly in showing mercy and pity: Grant us the fullness of your grace, that we, running to obtain your promises, may become partakers of your heavenly treasure; through Jesus Christ our Lord; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Amen.

The Collect

Almighty and everlasting God, you are always more ready to hear than we to pray, and to give more than we either desire or deserve: Pour upon us the abundance of your mercy, forgiving us those things of which our conscience is afraid, and giving us those good things for which we are not worthy to ask, except through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ our Savior; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

All baptized Christians are welcome to come to the Lord's Table. If you have a need or you wish to stand in for someone with a need, please come to the side altar where someone will pray with you.

Parenting Services and Baby Supplies

Thank you to those who brought baby supplies in the last few weeks. They were delivered to the Hope Parent Resource Center on Bailey Ave. and they were very happy to receive them. This is an all-volunteer organization which works mainly with pregnant teens in a family environment, providing them with much needed love, guidance, and education. Also, the girls earn the baby supplies they receive. Supplies are always welcome.

Picnic in the Park

Our Wednesday evenings at Kids' Corner are pure delight. You really should consider joining us. Last Wednesday was yet another FANTSTIC evening at the park. We gather at 6:00 pm, though some come later due to work schedules. Brad will have the coals fired up and ready for your grill-able fare.

The Wheat and the Weeds

Help the owner of the field separate the wheat from the weeds.

START

Jesus said that the Kingdom of God was like a man who sowed his field with quality wheat seed. While he was sleeping his enemy crept in and sowed weeds. Rather than risk hurting the wheat he chose to let them grow together until harvest time. Then the reapers gathered the weeds to be burned and gathered the wheat into the barn.
