Twenty-fifth Sunday after Pentecost
November 11, 2018

O God, whose blessed Son came into the world that he might destroy the works of the devil and make us children of God and heirs of eternal life:

Grant that, having this hope, we may purify ourselves as he is pure; that, when he comes again with power and great glory, we may be made like him in his eternal and glorious kingdom; where he lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Collect

Stir up, O Lord, the wills of your faithful people; that they may plenteously bring forth the fruit of good works, as they await the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ to restore all things to their original perfection; who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns for ever and ever. Amen.

All baptized Christians are welcome to come to the Lord's Table. If you have a need or you wish to stand in for someone with a need, please come to the side altar where someone will pray with you.

Advent Season Cometh

We still have three candles to be lit. If you would like to be a reader/candle lighter for the Advent Wreath this year please contact Lynne and she will set you up with a practice copy of the reading for the Sunday of your choosing.

Bishop Beckwith

Bishop Peter Beckwith will be with us on Saturday and Sunday, November 17 and 18, 2018. On Saturday, November 17 he will be available at the church in the evening to spend time with any of you who have issues you would like to discuss with him privately. Please come at 6:30 p.m. to take advantage of this opportunity with Bishop Peter.

On Sunday, November 18 Bishop Peter will be with us to deliver the homily and to celebrate communion while Fr. Rick is on vacation. He will be available after church service during Fellowship to speak with us in an open forum.

Poinsettia Donations

The season of Advent is approaching and soon our thoughts will turn to the birth of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. After the four weeks of advent, it will be wonderful to come into the nave of the church for the Christmas Eve service and be amazed at the beauty of the greens and flowers adorning the altar and sanctuary.

Many folks enjoy taking part in this adornment of the altar by donating an offering for the Christmas flowers. If you would like to contribute the Altar Guild Fund please take an envelope from the greeter's table and fill it out, then return it with your donation either to Carol Bailey or in the offering plate.
