Monday Prayer Service

Corporate Prayer will be offered prior to the vestry meeting in the multipurpose room Monday evening at 7 pm.

Holy Trinity has been on a journey of prayer since its inception. What a wonderful legacy our dear church has...Rooted in trust and prayer in community, with our loving Heavenly Father.

During the past year the Women's Bible study went on quite an adventure studying from the book of Nehemiah. Learning from the history of how God restored the broken walls and often broken relationships with His beloved and scattered children, all the while lovingly drawing them back to Himself and to one another. A priceless restoration of love and community.

One of the strongest lessons we came away from as we went deep in our time of learning was how the healing journey began with prayer. Before the first brick was laid and before any of individuals and families could truly return to their home, there was a time of prayer, reflection and repentance. It was from that foundation they received grace and healing and God shaped and laid out the good plans for their restoration.

Please join us on September 16, 7:00 pm at Holy Trinity as we seek God in a time of reflection, repentance and restoration. May God use this time of prayer as the foundation to remind us of His love and healing grace and provide His direction and good plans for us.
